Students of the Month

Corbyn Marquess, Gabe Kerns, Jacey Dopita

On Saturday November 3rd eighth grade student Corbyn Marquess from Plainville Junior High School participated in the Northwest Kansas Music Educators Middle School Honor Band. Corbyn was chosen to be one of the six percussionists to perform in this honor band. In order to be chosen for this honor band Corbyn had to make a recording of the audition material and submit this recording to be judged by a panel of percussionists. Corbyn's effort qualified her to participate in this honor band.

This year the NWKMEA Middle School Honor band was directed by Dr. Ken Hakoda from Salina. Dr. Hakoda is the director of the Salina Symphony and Professor of music at Kansas Wesleyan College. The music that Dr. Hakoda chose for this performance was very challenging for the young musicians in this honor band. The highlight of this performance was the last piece that this band played. The last piece of music was Dinosaurs by Daniel Bukvich which featured the percussion section. The Honor Band received a standing ovation for their performance and it was well deserved.

Congratulations Corbyn on all your hard work and great performance at this year's NWKMEA Middle School Honor Band. Your performance and hard work proves that music is alive and well in the schools here in Plainville and will continue to thrive with the support of parents and community members who believe in the power of Arts and Music in school.
